

NOW COMES THE FOOTBALL.

THE OUTLOOK VERY BRIGHT FOR STRONG TEAMS.

Cornell Promoters to Have the Greatest Eleven Ever Put on the Field—Marshall Newell Training the Men.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 22.—In calculating the football teams which will be in the field this fall Cornell must be counted upon. The work of the eleven last year was so good that it is not yet open, this large number indicates the feeling that exists among the students this year. The number will be increased to a hundred or more within a few days, and it can be seen at once that with such a field to pick from the make-up of the team must, with a man of Newell's judgment, be chosen them, be good. Newell is exceedingly popular with the candidates. He does a suit each day, and is in the thick of the battle every moment, with a word of praise for this good play and a reprimand for that one. Old football players in practice admit that in the three years Newell has been here he has instilled into them more knowledge of the game than they had dreamed existed. His system of teaching is certainly excellent, as each day's practice shows marked improvement in tackling, breaking through the line, and blocking.

For the position of full back there is practically no competition. Ohl, last year's full back, has apparently a walkover. He has been all summer in Ithaca practicing kicking under the instruction of March, the old Lafayette player. Ohl can kick the ball far and quick, and he has a sure hand with the foot, so that he is the favorite of the candidates. For quarter back there are five excellent candidates: Becham of last year's team, Mason, Tamm, the little fellow who played right end in last year's Harvard game, Yorkoff and Baker, a new comer. Of these well seems to favor Yorkoff, who tackles well, and can pass the ball rapidly and accurately, and is the favorite of the lot. Dr. apparently has a call for the position of right half back. He is temporary captain of the team. He has a right half back position, his work this year is an improvement of 100 per cent. In fact he plays like a head and will lead from the front. For left half back, Smith, who played on the Manlius College team last year, is counted upon. He is not here yet but is expected every day, being on route here from South America, the steamer being now due. On this work on this team last year was so phenomenal that the place is being reserved for him, so sure is the management that he will fill the bill.

For ends there are eight candidates; two who are doing very fine work are Cool and Terry. Cool has played substitute full back for three years. Terry has been a candidate number to-day twenty-five, a great many of them doing promising work.

Pop Warner returns to college to-morrow and will play right guard. He has been on the Cornell eleven for the last three years. Joe Colon, who played on the '01 and '02 teams, is back, with an indubitable play. Left guard, Elms, will furnish the Cornell center with Fennell, who is large and powerful, and is thought to be the best center ever at Cornell. E. O. Armstrong, who played guard for Pennington last year, will center if he does not go to Columbia. If he comes he will be counted on to be a good one. There is also a probable center, who has been playing guard for Pennington last year, coming to Cornell.

With the chances of these two players coming, the material now here, and the almost certain good material which comes with very fresh men, Cornell hopes to have a team of first-class reputation. So strong is the feeling of confidence in Newell's ability to put an A. team on the field, that he is being offered, with no takers, by the sports student element that Pennington will be defeated this year, Harvard will not score more than 12 points and Princeton not over 18, and that all the three teams mentioned will be scored against. Cornell will make her first appearance in New York City this year on Oct. 20, when she will play the Princeton Tigers, and again on Oct. 27 against Harvard. The game with Pennsylvania will be played on Nov. 10, and a bet was offered to-night of 20 to 1 that Cornell would shut Lehigh out and score 30 points at least against the Quakers. The game this season will be played next Wednesday at Ithaca between Cornell and Syracuse.

HARVARD'S FIRST WEEK'S PRACTICE.

Their Work Has Been Very Encouraging—Waters May Play Again.

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 22.—The first week's practice of the Harvard football candidates has been as encouraging as any similar period of practice within the past four years. At the close of the season last year it was supposed that at least four of the positions in the line would have to be taken this season by new men. Macdonald, Newell were to graduate, Lewis was debarred from further contests by the four-year limit, and Watson announced that he would probably be unable to play again.

Behind the line Capt. Waters was the only man who would graduate or become ineligible. When the time came for the election of a new captain, Waters announced his intention of returning to the law school, and he was unanimously chosen to lead the team for another year. The athletic committee of the faculty, however, refused to ratify the election on the ground that they would have an underdog in the line. The election of Bob Emmens to the captaincy immediately followed. But it is pretty generally felt that inasmuch as Waters allowed his name to be used in the election he will be in duty bound to offer his services to Capt. Emmens. In case he does so he will be needed without a doubt as a guard, the position he filled so well two seasons ago. And now it appears that Macdonald, who will be back in college, and in case he is much needed, he can probably be induced to again put on the canvas jacket and mokeskin.

As the freshmen material for the centre position is considerably above the average, the prospects for a strong centre are extremely bright. Of the new men Holt is perhaps the most promising. He is six feet tall, weighs 190 pounds. He has had two years' experience on the line, and has been playing already shown that he has both a quick mind and a good command over his big body. Shaw has plenty of weight and strength, but so far he has acted rather green. Manahan, who played tackle last year, and Stevens, on the right end, are both back, and the latter is trying to get along with the half backs. The most likely candidate for right end is Arthur Brewer, who played last year. The Harvard team in Pennsylvania game was injured. He has as much as a few feet that he deserved this place last year.

Quarter back there promises to be the best kind of a fight. Beale, who had the best last year, is out again, but he will be no means far from the place. Besides Fairchild and Foster, who played last year, there are several other candidates. The most likely candidate for right end is Arthur Brewer, who played last year. ## THE OUTLOOK AT WESLEYAN.

There are a Number of Vacancies Back of the Line to be Filled.

MIDDEBOWS, Sept. 22.—The Wesleyan football team begins this season with fairly good prospects. Most of the candidates have been here for a couple of days taking light practice. Nearly all of last year's line will be in college this season, the only vacancies being one guard and an end. There is at present no one here capable of filling the place at guard, and the position will be taken by a freshman, probably Hand or Noyes. Each of these men weighs about 200 pounds, and they have had considerable experience at the game. There are plenty of candidates for the vacancy at end, the most promising being Lee, '95; Guernsey, '97; Leno, '96, and Alexander, '96. Lee will undoubtedly get the position, if he is not needed more at tackle. He played tackle on last year's team, and is by long odds the best all-round player in college.

Behind the line the things are not so well. For full back, left vacant by the graduation of Capt. Gordon, there is no very promising candidate. The place will probably be filled by Wilson, '97, or Leno, '96, who played half back last year. Quarter back is also a vacant position, but either Davis or Kent, '97, substitutes last season, will probably play there. The entering class contains good material besides that already mentioned, and most of the old men on the line will be back to work hard and well.

The coaching this year will be done wholly by old Wesleyan players. This was tried as an experiment last season, and proved successful. Several ex-captains have already promised to devote a week or two of their vacation to the coaching of the new team. The team will be ready for use in a few days. The schedule of games for the season is as follows: Oct. 6, Cornell, C. at East Orange; 12, Amherst, at Amherst; 19, New York, at New York; 26, Stevens, at Stevens; 30, Middlebury, at Middlebury; 6, Princeton, at Princeton; 13, Harvard, at Harvard; 20, Yale, at Yale; 27, Columbia, at Columbia; 3, Princeton, at Princeton; 10, Harvard, at Harvard; 17, Yale, at Yale; 24, Columbia, at Columbia; 31, Princeton, at Princeton; 7, Harvard, at Harvard;
